ABOUT ME

I am Tunji Akande, a proficient MERN developer renowned for building strong web applications. My expertise lies in creating user-friendly React.js interfaces coupled with robust backends using Express.js, Node.js, and MongoDB. I prioritize clean, industry-compliant code and excel in effective communication, bridging technical and non-technical divides. Fueled by a thirst for learning, I swiftly adapt and deliver top-notch solutions. Through precision, collaboration, and continuous growth, I aspire to surpass expectations and make substantial contributions to the realm of web development.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Abaris

Mid level | Web developer
New Delhi , India
2022-12-01 | Currently working here

Working as a MERN developer at Abaris Softech has been enriching. Responsible for full stack development, I design interfaces, implement layouts, and develop server-side logic using MongoDB, Express, React, and Node.js. Collaborating with diverse talents, our teamwork fosters innovation, delivering quality solutions. Staying updated with industry trends, I strive for excellence, creating robust web applications. Abaris Softech's supportive environment encourages growth, enhancing my skills. With challenging projects and cutting-edge tech, my experience has been rewarding, contributing to my development. I am proud to be part of a team dedicated to innovative web solutions, demonstrating excellence in every endeavor.
